OUR MARKETS AND PRESENCE

DEVELOPING YOUR BUSINESS IN CHINA

China is known as the world's most important exporter of various products. China is currently in the initial phase of an import-oriented economic model for a more advanced domestic consumption model.

The importance of health science and healthcare continues to grow, both due to the urbanization process and the rise of incomes of the middle class.

Our program «Growth in China» aims to help small and medium-sized companies from the CIS and the EU to export their innovative products to the Chinese market at the best price, low risk and in a way that suits the client the most.
